Bristow Group Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended December 31, 2018 (the "Form 10-Q") within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense.

As disclosed by the Company in Item 8.01 of its Current Report on Form 8-K furnished to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 11, 2019, the Company is reviewing its historical processes for monitoring compliance with certain non-financial covenants in certain of the Company's secured financing and lease agreements to determine whether all accounting and financial reporting implications of such processes, covenants and any breaches of such covenants were appropriately considered. The Company has identified a material weakness in internal controls over financial reporting that it expects to report in the Form 10-Q related to the monitoring of compliance with certain non-financial covenants in certain of the Company's secured financing and lease agreements. Additional time is needed for the Company to compile and analyze supporting documentation in order to complete the Form 10-Q, and for management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm to evaluate any implications for the Company's financial statements for the current period and prior periods related to such material weakness and any non-compliance with such non-financial covenants. Further discussion of the material weakness and any financial statement implications, including any related revisions to the Company's previously issued financial statements, will be included in the Form 10-Q and an amendment to the Form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018.

The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q no later than February 19, 2019.
